5. Brief Report about the individual:

Ngawang Thupten is a monk since childhood. He came to India in year 1959 along with hundreds of Tibetans following His Holiness the Dalai Lama when China occupied Tibet. He stayed at Sera Monastery in the South of India for 13 years but due to ill health, he left the monastery and got settled in Dharamsala. He has been here for more than 30 years now.

He has old aged related problems. And he has a known case of hypertension from many years. He is on medication for the hypertension.

He has a younger sister who is in Tibet. Other than her he has a niece in India.

He is living with his niece in a rented house for which he has to pay Rs 2500/month. He is living with her as she is sick most of the time and he has to take care of her. He really faces problem in his daily life as there is no major source of income except Rs. 750 per month from the Tibetan Settlement Office. This is insufficient to meet his expenses which include room rent, daily requirements and medical cost of his niece.

So immediate help is requested for.
