1. Name: Yeshi Choetso
2. Age: 49/F
4. Present Location: Mcleodganj Dharamsala

5. Brief Report about the individual:

Ven. Yeshi Choetso came to India in the month of April 2004 from Tibet. She has been a nun since childhood. But when she reached India, she couldn't join any of the nunneries as she has crossed the age limit for joining such institutes.

So on her arrival here, she was sent to Tibetan Transit School for the new comers from Tibet. She stayed there for two years and but had to leave the school due to her frequent illness.

Thereafter she stayed at a hostel for the nuns from Tibet. She had to leave the hostel too after few years due to her frequent illnesses.

Finally she moved to a house of her friend, where they have to pay some rent, as had no one looking after her when ill.

Health: While in Tibet, she fell down from a rooftop of her house. She couldn't receive proper treatment there as there was no hospital in her village. So when she reached India, she went to different hospitals but there was no proper cure as the disease has become chronic. She has very bad arthritis and she has difficulty in seeing with left eye.

Family: Her parents passed away while she was in Tibet. She has a sister and a brother who are farmers at Tibet. She has no relative in India thus she has no one helping her.

Though she is getting Rs 1500 per month from Tibetan Nunnery Project, the amount she receives in not sufficient even to pay her rent.

She therefore needs support so as to pay for her medical expense and daily needs.
