

Donate Textbooks to Support the Tibet Charity English Class

Tibet Charity has been providing English language classes to the new comers from Tibet for the last ten years. The idea was to give Basic English language proficiency to these students who have never had any opportunity to go to proper school while in Tibet. This also gives the tool to communicate better with the world outside occupied Tibet. It also gives them access to the vast information available on wide range of topics in English. But of late, the volunteers as well as teachers have found difficulty in using the photo copied pages of the books (New English File). They have all suggested that we provide them with books which are available online with Amazon.
