

CASE HISTORY

Name: Sonam Choskit (Nun)

Age: 37 yrs

Present Location: Rishi Bhawan, Dharamkot

Brief report about self:

Sonam Choskit was born in Ladakh in year 1983. She is a youngest one in the family and later became orphan. She became a nun at the age of 22. She moved to Dharamsala by 2018. Although she has a vast family but they all have their own respective families to feed and their own financial conditions too, are not good. Hence she has been surviving on her own.

She is suffering from Gastic Ulcer Disease for which she is having medicines. However, the overall treatments and tests are quite expensive to bear. She has been surviving so far with small alms given during nunnery project and while attending public prayer sessions. However, it is not a sufficient to fulfill her basic needs. We request your kind support in such a dire situation.
