

CASE HISTORY

Name: Lobsang Dolma (Nun)

Age: 65 yrs

Present Location: Dharamsala

Brief report about self:

Ani Lobsang Dolma is a Buddhist nun who was born in Zanskar, Ladakh in year 1956. She has one sister with three children whose husband is an unemployed. She came to Dharamsala to receive teachings from His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama. Unfortunately, it couldn't happen due to the pandemic. Currently she lives in a Dharamsala in a rented room. She is also not keeping well too. She has joint pain and previously was operated for Gall Bladder Stone for which she is having her medications at present.

Her expenses which include overall treatments and tests are quite expensive to bear. She also has to bear daily expenses like house rent, medical expense and it is hard to live even during pandemic lockdown. She was surviving so far with small alms given during public prayer sessions. But it became difficult to get during COVID 19. We request your kind support in fulfilling her basic necessities.
