

CASE HISTORY

Name: Dawa Drakpa (Monk)

Age: 55 yrs

Present Location: Rishi Bhawan, Dharamkot

Brief report about self:

Dawa Drakpa was born in Tibet in year 1965. He fled from Tibet and arrived to India long time ago. He stayed in Drepung Monastery, Dharamsala as a monk at first. Later on he moved to a rented house to practice spiritual meditation. He has no family members here in India and currently he is also not keeping well too. His health is deteriorating at present. He has to regularly visit hospital for a timely health check up.

However, the overall treatments and tests are quite expensive to bear. He has been surviving so far with small alms given during public prayer sessions. However, it is not sufficient enough to fulfill the basic needs. We request your kind support in such a dire situation.
