

CASE HISTORY

Name: Ani Dolkar (Nun)

Age: 79 yrs

Present Location: Dharamsala

Brief report about self:

Ani Dolkar is a Tibetan Nun who was born in Tibet in year 1942. She fled from Tibet and arrived to India in 2005. She has 5 kids in total out of which one is in France and remaining 4 are in Tibet. She became nun later when she arrived in India. She has no contact with her family members in Tibet due to constant Chinese surveillance and currently she is also not keeping well too. She is suffering from high blood pressure, high sugar level, and Joint pain. Hence, the overall treatments and tests are quite expensive to bear.

She is living in a rent free accommodation which is provided from Dalai Lama Trust. However, she has to bear other daily expenses like monthly electricity bill, medical expenses, and food supplies etc. It is hard to live even during pandemic lockdown. She gets some pocket money amounting Rs. 1000 per month through other source which is not enough to fulfill her daily needs. We request your kind support in fulfilling her basic necessities.
