

CASE HISTORY

Name: Ani Jamyang Dolma (Nun)

Age: 68 yrs

Present Location: Dharamsala

Brief report about self:

Ani Jamyang Dolma is a Tibetan nun who was born in Kham region of Tibet in year 1953. He fled from Tibet and arrived to India in 1998. She has no family or relatives here in India who can take care of her. She has previously suffered Tuberculosis (TB) and presently having high blood pressure.

She is living in a rent free accommodation which is provided from Dalai Lama Trust. However, she has to bear other daily expenses like monthly electricity bill, medical expenses, and food supplies etc. It is hard to live even during pandemic lockdown. She gets some pocket money amounting Rs. 1000 per month through other source which is not enough to fulfill her daily needs. We request your kind support in fulfilling her basic necessities.

.