Ani Tenzin Tsering is a Tibetan nun who was born in Tibet in year 1949. She fled from Tibet and arrived to India in 1990. She has one younger sister who is also a nun at Gaden Choeling Nunnery. She has no other family members here in India and currently she is also not keeping well too. She is suffering from Heart Hypertrophy and also taking Tibetan medicines for Tuberculosis (TB) at present.

Although, Norbuling Nunnery are looking after her and her sister. They pay them 2000/- per month for their household expenses. They also receive some money (Rs 1000-2000 per person for 4-5 months) from Dalai Lama Trust as well for their daily needs. However it is not sufficient enough to bear all the monthly expenses such as paying electricity bills, medicine bills and medical treatments. As the overall treatments and tests are quite expensive to bear. We request your kind support in fulfilling her basic necessities.
