

CASE HISTORY

Name: Ani Tsultrim Dolma (Nun)

Age: 71 yrs

Present Location: Near Kyirong Village

Brief report about self:

Ani Tsultrim Dolma is a Tibetan nun who was born in Ladakh, India in year 1950. She came to Dharamsala in 1970. She became nun at the age of 18. She has a family in Ladakh. They couldn't help her due to their own financial issues. Currently Ani Tsultrim Dolma is living in a rented room and pays 3000/- per month. She is also not keeping well too. She has hearing problems and also can't see from her left eye. She is suffering from high blood pressure and had a back injury twice. Currently she is having Tibetan Medicines for her Blood pressure condition. Hence, the overall treatments and tests are quite expensive to bear. She also has to bear daily expenses like house rent, medical expense and it is hard to live even during pandemic lockdown. Earlier she has been surviving so far with small alms given during public prayer sessions. But it became difficult to get during COVID 19. We request your kind support in fulfilling her basic necessities.
