

CASE HISTORY

Name: Kunchok Thinley (Monk)

Age: 69 yrs

Present Location: Near Tushita Centre,
Dharamkot

Brief report about self:

Kunchok Thinley is a Tibetan Monk who was born in Tibet in year 1953. He fled from Tibet and arrived to India in 1995. He has no family members here in India except his niece who is earning a minimal income by selling Tsampa (Barley flour) on street. He is suffering from Blood Pressure for which he is having Medicines. Hence, the overall treatments and tests are quite expensive to bear. He also has to bear daily expenses like house rent, medical expense and it is hard to live even during pandemic lockdown. He has been surviving so far with small alms given during public prayer sessions. We request your kind support in fulfilling his basic necessities.

